

Letter from the President

Gratitude. Looking back on 2025, I am filled with gratitude. I am eternally grateful for the 25 dedicated community volunteers who serve as trustees on the Skagit Regional Health Foundation board, along with the exceptional leadership provided by staff members Linda Frizzell, Wendy Ragusa and Kenzie Sharpe.

I am also grateful for the hundreds of volunteers who make the ParTee Golf Classic and the Festival of Trees highly successful fundraising events each year. These events collectively brought in gross proceeds exceeding $630,000 in 2025.

My gratitude goes out to restaurant owner Bill Constantine, owner of the Cask & Cleaver Steakhouse and Il Granaio Authentic Italian Restaurant, for his ongoing support of the Skagit Regional Health Foundation through the Have a Heart for Kids Online Campaign (see page 18) and to all the organizations that host annual “pink events.” This includes high school sports teams, local fitness facilities and many other groups and organizations.

My gratitude extends to the perennial and new donors who support the Foundation with financial contributions year in and year out. Without them, the Foundation could not have surpassed the $28 million fundraising mark since its inception 37 years ago. We truly live in a generous community!

In 2024, the Skagit Regional Health Foundation kicked off a $1.6 million campaign to provide safety and security upgrades in all 21 birthing rooms at Skagit Valley Hospital. My gratitude goes out to Aldi Kloggeri and Lesha Boucher, who chaired the Family Birth Center Capital Campaign, which was completed at the end of 2025.

Last but not least, I must take a moment to recognize all the exceptional work and dedication that staff members from Skagit Regional Health make on a daily basis. The high-quality healthcare system in our community would not be a reality without the men and women who provide exceptional healthcare, always.

We had much to be grateful for in 2025 on the Skagit Regional Health Foundation front. So far, 2026 is showing great promise, and it means great things for our community!

With gratitude,

Brent Thompson
President
Skagit Regional Health Foundation

Our mission

The mission of the Skagit Regional Health Foundation is to raise, manage and distribute funds to assure the continued availability of quality health care services and programs at Skagit Regional Health (SRH). The Foundation will foster awareness of and community support for SRH through the involvement of the people it serves.

Board of trustees

Volunteers are the key to the Skagit Regional Health Foundation's efforts in securing philanthropy. We are pleased to acknowledge the efforts of our trustees, who unselfishly give their time and resources as an example to all, and who provide leadership in the Foundation's prudent stewardship of gifts.

Your support made our Family Birth Center Campaign a success!

The Foundation proudly announced the successful completion of its $1.6 million Family Birth Center Campaign with a celebration in February, attended by Foundation donors and trustees, Family Birth Center staff and Skagit Regional Health leadership.

The campaign funds support the renovation of the Birth Center’s 21 private maternity suites, enhancing comfort, safety and care for every family welcoming a newborn at Skagit Valley Hospital. The upgrades bring added benefits, including flexible workspaces for specialized maternity teams and new furniture in each room, such as modern rocking chairs and sleeper sofas, for added comfort.

The Family Birth Center suites feature updated equipment purchased by the hospital and Foundation grants, including portable infant warmers, specialized transport warmers for preterm babies and telehealth technology linking pediatricians with Seattle Children’s neonatologists in real time.

These improvements come at a time when the Family Birth Center is seeing more than 100 births each month, making the renovations especially meaningful for both families and staff.

Love as a legacy

When we name something, we do more than label—we preserve presence. Names honor those who mattered, creating continuity and leaving a lasting impact. These acts of naming through donor philanthropy are true expressions of love, ensuring that the importance of these relationships endures.

The campaign’s fundraising through naming opportunities was warmly and enthusiastically supported by Foundation donors. Donors who contributed $10,000 were invited to name a maternity suite, either in honor of or in memory of cherished loved ones. Families, civic clubs and local businesses responded quickly, ensuring all 21 suites, three triage rooms and the lactation room were funded.

What this means for our patients and families

Before these renovations, many families facing early preterm or higher-risk births often had to leave the area for care. Today, that experience looks different.

The renovated Family Birth Center fundamentally changes the level of care our clinical teams can safely deliver in response to higher-acuity situations.

As a result, more families can now remain in Skagit County for care during the most vulnerable moments surrounding birth.

Honoring loved ones, celebrating new beginnings

Donors share why they chose to name a Family Birth Center suite

Rotary Club of Burlington

“ The donation was made by my family to honor the legacy of my father, Harry E. Worley, MD, OB/GYN. He delivered over 10,000 babies at Skagit Valley Hospital, including three generations in some families, and only two sets of twins. ”

Daughter Barbara Worley

Rob & Sara Coallier with Son

“ Our community depends on Skagit Regional Health for newborn and maternity care. We are honored to be a part of ensuring quality healthcare. ”

Rotary Club of Burlington

Harry E. Worley, MD, OB/GYN

“ We chose to name the same room our son was born in. He is now eight years old and thriving. ”

Parents Rob & Sara Coallier

Veronica & Olivia Pratt

“ We feel so honored to be able to dedicate this room to our sweet mother. She dedicated 17 years of her career to her profession as a labor & delivery nurse at Skagit Regional Health. There are no words to express the gratitude we feel as her children to watch her legacy live on for the generations to come. ”

Veronica Pratt

“ Our hearts are filled with gratitude to be able to honor our mother in such a special way. She was a devoted, passionate, and inspiring L&D nurse at Skagit Regional Family Birth Center. Knowing that her legacy will continue on for generations to come means more to us than words can express. ”

Olivia Pratt

A heartfelt thank you to our donors

The Skagit Regional Health Foundation Board of Trustees and staff are grateful for the continued generosity and support of our donors. This report represents more than a list of contributions—it reflects a shared commitment to strengthening programs and services at Skagit Regional Health.

Your philanthropy helps ensure compassionate, high-quality care for our community and supports the work of those who serve it every day. Thank you for believing in our mission and for partnering with us to make a meaningful difference. We look forward to what we can accomplish together in the year ahead.

With sincere gratitude to our community for your support, the Skagit Regional Health Foundation proudly presents our annual Gratitude Report.

In 2025, the Skagit Regional Health Foundation received $1,191,093 in contributions.

A huge thank you to our incredible Skagit Regional Health team

Skagit Regional Health employees once again showed their commitment to exceptional care by contributing more than $55,000 to the Foundation's 2026 Employee Giving Campaign. These generous gifts support vital patient-care programs across our health system, with each donation directed to the fund chosen by the employee.

Employee contributions—made through cash gifts, monthly payroll or paid time off deductions—strengthen care, support families and enhance the health of our community.

Together, SRH employees make extraordinary care possible.

Have a Heart for Kids Annual fundraiser supports young patients

The annual Have a Heart for Kids online fundraiser, held in January, raised $5,280 to support young patients in Skagit Regional Health’s Children’s Therapy Program. Proceeds support the purchase of essential therapy equipment and home therapy supplies, helping ensure our youngest patients have the tools they need to continue making progress both in clinical settings and at home.

The Foundation extends sincere appreciation to Il Granaio Authentic Italian Restaurant and Cask & Cleaver Steakhouse, and especially to Bill Constantine, owner of the sister restaurants, whose generous partnership has played a key role in the success of this fundraiser for seven consecutive years. As part of this year’s event, each restaurant donated 100 meal vouchers, providing a meaningful incentive for community participation while supporting pediatric therapy services.

Bill Constantine’s leadership and community commitment, combined with the generosity of participating community members, continues to make an important difference for local families accessing quality therapy.

Epic Systems Corporation gives $16,500 grant

The Skagit Regional Health Foundation received a $16,500 grant from Epic Systems Corporation. A total of $8,500 will be used to restock the Emergency Room Clothing Banks at Skagit Valley Hospital and Cascade Valley Hospital. During treatment, patient clothing may be removed, torn or discarded.

The Clothing Banks provide sweatshirts, sweatpants and socks as needed, so that every patient can leave our hospitals with dignity.

An additional $8,000 was committed to supporting the Family Birth Center Campaign.

The Foundation extends sincere thanks to Epic Systems Corporation for championing such a vital patient and community program.

Learn more about how Epic's grant supports Skagit Regional Health.
